

Safe use of carabiners

- Carabiners must be equipped with locks.
- Carabiners should have eyelets.

Examples of energy-absorbing fastening

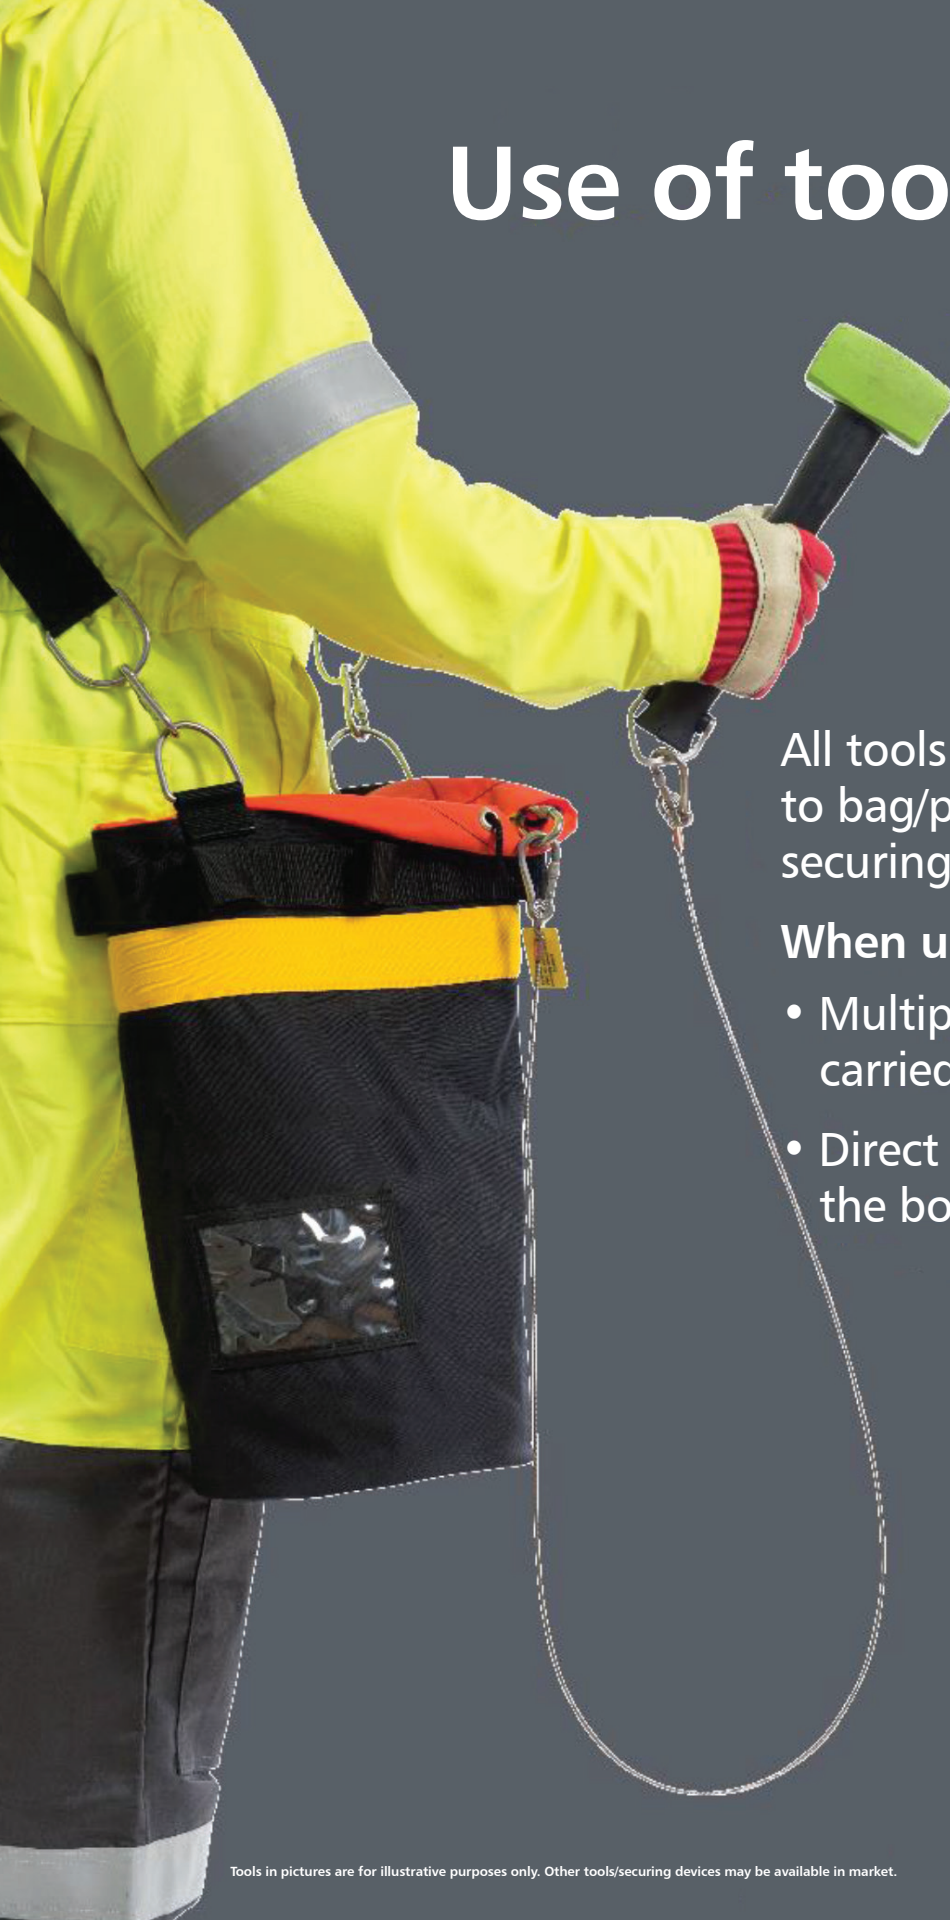

- Fastenings on tools should be energy-absorbing.
- Snap-coil is an energy-absorbing fastening device.

The use of Wrist Straps

- The use of wrist straps is not recommended practice.
- The use of a bag or belt is recommended.

Use of toolbag

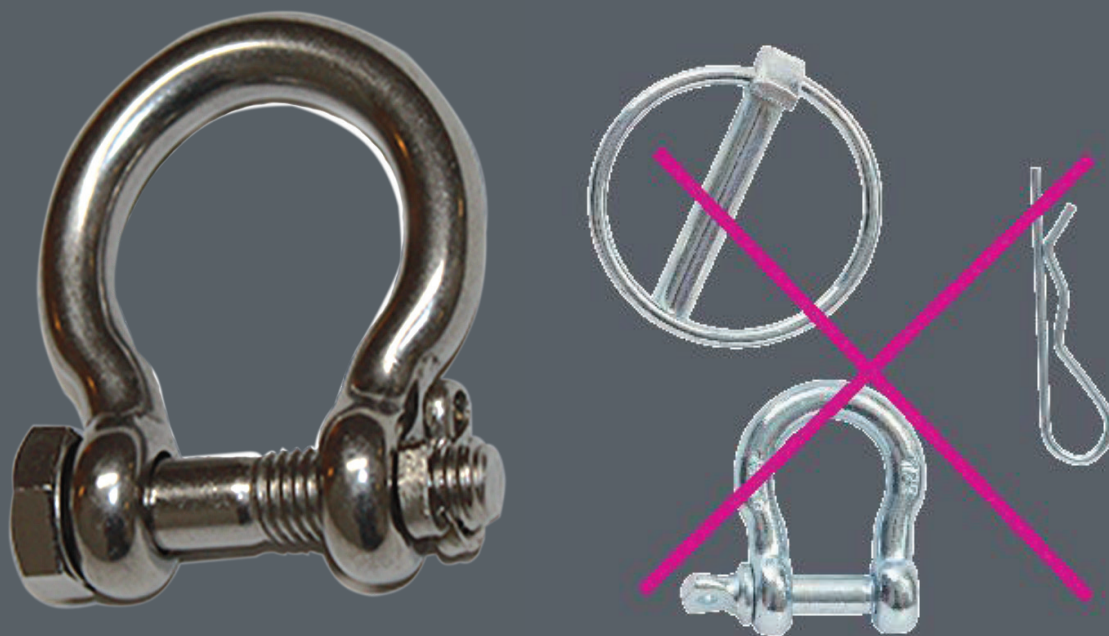

All tools must be attached to bag/pouch with internal securing loops.

When using safety bags:

- Multiple tools can be carried safely.
- Direct securing to the body is avoided.

Safe use of shackles in lifting operations

- Securing pins of the type shown in the right image should not be used in lifting equipment.
- Cotter pins must be bent all the way back so they cannot be knocked out.

Examples of energy-absorbing fastening

- Fastenings on tools should be energy-absorbing.

Safe use of carabiners

